

any past, present, or prospective student, employee (including administrator, faculty, or staff), contractor, or volunteer.

This Policy governs conduct on all of the University's properties, including but not limited to the Auditorium Theatre of Roosevelt University ("ATRU"). Unless otherwise stated, the term "Employee" as used in this Policy shall refer to all employees (including administrators, faculty, and staff), contractors.

---

All Divisions of the University.

---

All University Policies.

---

The Provost shall have the authority to revise this Policy, subject to the approval of the President's Executive Council (if required).

The following shall have the authority to establish any procedures necessary to implement this Policy: The Provost.